

New and Improved Features For 2009 Mark II SkyTrain Vehicles

New exterior livery and interior colour scheme

Improved passenger doors with visual door close indicators located inside each set of doors

Improved accessibility featuring lower, platform friendly floor entrance height

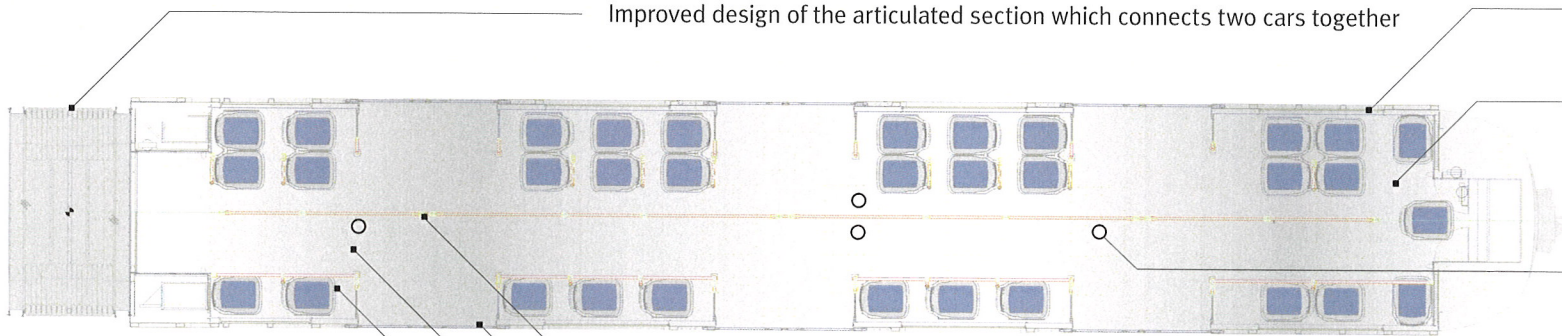

Improved design of the articulated section which connects two cars together

New electronic destination sign

Improved heating, ventilation and air conditioning system

New flooring complete with anti-slip properties

Onboard closed circuit television (CCTV) cameras - 4 per car

New and improved stanchion arrangement

New electronic route map

New seating layout and spacious interior facilitates easier movement for people with wheelchairs, strollers and bikes

New seats featuring improved ergonomic design and long-lasting upholstery