

Island trip planned, too

Barkerville Tour Recaptures Atmosphere of Gold Rush Days

Two of Pacific Stage Lines' most popular tours will be repeated during early August; one to historic Barkerville; the other to Vancouver Island, including a visit to the rugged west coast.

The Barkerville tour begins at 8 a.m., Saturday, August 4, from Vancouver Bus Depot, Dunsmuir and Cambie. You'll return to Vancouver at 8.30 p.m., Monday, August 6. You'll travel on a comfortable highway coach over the smooth, Fraser Canyon Highway, once a twisting trail dotted by miners struggling north for gold. You'll pass Yale, Spences Bridge, Cache Creek, 100 Mile House, Williams Lake to Quesnel where you'll stay for two nights.

At 8.30 Sunday morning, you'll leave for Barkerville which has been rebuilt to capture the gold rush atmosphere of a century ago. You can become part of the mood quickly by panning your own gold, by visiting the old theatre with its twice-daily shows based on history, by riding the stage coach which runs 10 times daily over the Cariboo Trail from Barkerville to nearby Richfield.

At 4 p.m., your modern bus will take you away from the 1862 gold rush atmosphere and back to Quesnel. At 8 a.m. Monday morning, you'll leave for home. Rates for this exciting trip, including transportation and hotel accommodations, range from $39.25 to $42.75 — depending on sleeping accommodations required.

The Vancouver Island tour leaves the bus depot at 7.45 a.m., Saturday, August 11, arrives back at Vancouver about 8.30 p.m., Monday.

Cost of the tour, including transportation, hotel accommodations, Victoria sightseeing and lunch at Ucluelet, ranges from $31.50 to $35.65.

Space on both trips is limited so please reserve early by phoning MUTual 3-2421.

THE BUZZER

Published weekly by the British Columbia Hydro and Power Authority

Vol. 47 Vancouver, B.C., Friday, July 27, 1962 No. 30

"Happy Kingdom of Hunza", which has no crime rate or sickness, will be among themes featured on TV adventure series which begins at 8:30 p.m., Tuesday, August 7 on Channel 8.

Family Adventure

...don't miss "Seven League Boots"

You can look forward to 39 weekly half hours of family television adventure on Channel 8 starting Tuesday, August 7, at 8:30 p.m.

A new television series, "Seven League Boots," offers something for everyone. You'll learn about the upbringing and training of a Japanese Geisha Girl, about the dangerous lives of smugglers in Singapore, about "The White Trail to Buddha". You'll visit the city of Hunza, high in the Himalayas, which has no crime rate, no juvenile delinquency and no police force.

—Continued on page 2

You'll enjoy this art tour

We hope you'll join the Vancouver International Festival tour of local art exhibits scheduled for July 31, Aug. 2, 3, 7 and 9. You'll find it's fun to travel with a group of fellow art fans.

You'll gather at Vancouver Art Gallery at 11 a.m., travel directly on a charter bus to Burnaby Centennial Pavilion for lunch. There you'll enjoy a collection of paintings by Jack Shadbolt and other B.C. artists. Later you'll visit the UBC Fine Arts Gallery, Totem Park and the Maritime Museum. The tour party arrives back at Vancouver Art Gallery about 3.45 p.m. with lots of time to see the Gallery exhibits.

This tour costs only $2.50, including lunch, admission to art exhibits and comfortable bus transportation. Tickets are available at Vancouver International Festival box offices at Eaton's stores.

* * *

Railway fans plan outings

The West Coast Railfan Association plans two outings in August and the public is invited to both.

They have chartered No. 2001, the first trolley coach to run on Vancouver Streets, to tour the city, including stops for photos and a visit to Oakridge Transit Centre where the coach and passengers will ride through the wash racks.

On Aug. 25, they have scheduled a return trip from Vancouver to Huntingdon on a CPR open Rocky Mountain-type observation car. Tickets for the trolley coach tour of the city sell for $2. The trip to Huntingdon will cost $6 for adults, $4 for children. For information and tickets, phone Peter Cox, RE 3-2555 for the city tour and Gary Oliver, FA 7-7555 for the Huntingdon trip.

* * *

7-LEAGUE BOOTS

(Continued from page 1)

Your host and narrator will be Jack Douglas who also presented the prize-winning "Bold Journey" and "I Search for Adventure" programs.

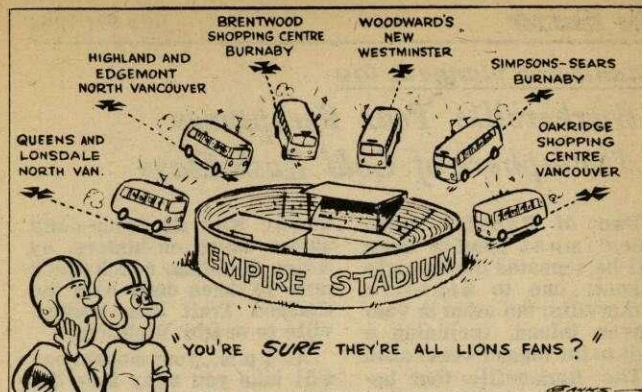

One of his cameramen actually lived for two weeks as a member of the famed Khyber Rifles to capture authentic atmosphere and excitement.

"Seven League Boots" received exclusive rights to send a camera crew to the actual caves where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered to film the remarkable story of how an Arab boy uncovered one of the most significant archaeological finds of all times.

Other exciting programs deal with The Persian Plains, A Weekend in Tokyo, The Pagan Village, The Cowboys of France, Jungle Town Amigos, South of Bengal Bay, The Kingdom of the Shah, The Moslems of the Sulu Sea, When They Marry in Japan, The Filipino, The Twentieth Century Samurai. And there are many more.

"Seven League Boots" will be brought to you by B.C. Hydro.

We hope you will make it a weekly family date—each Tuesday night at 8.30 on Channel 8, beginning August 7.

Football Express Buses Now Depart From Six Locations

Non-stop bus service to B.C. Lions' home games has been so popular that it has been extended to carry fans from an additional location in Burnaby — bringing the total number of departure points in the metropolitan area to six.

Commencing with Lions' exhibition game against Toronto on July 28, express buses will pick up fans at the following locations and depart at the times indicated:

- Woodward's Oakridge parking lot, 41st and Cambie, continuously from 7 to 8 p.m.;
- Woodward's New Westminster, 6th Ave. and 6th St., 7.30 p.m.;
- Simpsons Sears, Kingsway and McKercher, Burnaby, 7.45 p.m.;
- Brentwood Shopping Centre, Willingdon and Lougheed, Burnaby, 7.45 p.m.;
- Highland and Edgemont, North Vancouver, 7.45 p.m.;
- Queens and Lonsdale, North Vancouver, 7.50 p.m.;

There's lots of free parking at each of the above locations. Express buses will carry fans non-stop to Empire Stadium. And there'll be a seat for everyone.

Fans will leave their buses near the Stadium entrance; the buses will wait to pick them up at the same location after the game for a non-stop return trip to the point of origin.

Return fare for this fast, convenient service: 75 cents.

There'll be no traffic or parking headaches. Just relax, talk football with your companions and leave the driving to us.

* * *

Wife — "Remember that unbreakable toy you gave Mary yesterday?"

Husband — "Don't tell me she's broken it already?"

Wife — "No, but she's broken all her other toys with it."

* * *

A doctor went hunting and came home complaining that he hadn't killed anything. "That's what you get," said his wife, "for neglecting your practice."